To: All Motor Vehicle Administrators
From: Edgar J. Roberts, Director
Date: November 1, 2010
Subject: Nevada Certificates of Title Re-Designed

The Nevada Department of Motor Vehicles will begin issuing a redesigned Certificate of Title and Salvage Title on December 1, 2010. Please note changes to security features.

New security features for both regular and salvage titles include:

Eagle Watermark. Hold the title up to a light source and look for a vertical row of eagle heads on the left hand side. This feature is not visible without a light source.

Thermo-chromic ink. At the bottom right corner of the title, the words "STATE OF NEVADA" appear in white with a purple background. If this area of the paper is exposed to heat, the purple will change to white. This security feature can be tested by holding or rubbing the area between fingers to activate the color change from color to colorless.

Security features NOT included on new titles:

Intaglio ink. Intaglio ink printing is no longer used around the border of the Nevada Certificate of Title.

Enclosed are examples of the new Certificate of Title documents. Previously issued Certificates of Title are still valid.

We hope you find this information useful. You may direct any questions or concerns to Nevada Department of Motor Vehicles Title Research (775)-684-4810.
